

Important information for applicants

Nelson Tasman Housing Trust (NTHT) provides quality, affordable, healthy, rental homes for people and whānau in need.

Criteria

Our rental homes are for people on low incomes. To qualify, you must either be on the Ministry of Social Development Housing Register, or if you don't qualify for the register, your income needs to be under 60% of the median NZ household income (for 2021, this is $980 per week).

To assist your application to NTHT, we recommend you apply to be placed on the Ministry of Social Development (MSD) Housing Register. The first step in this process is to call Work and Income on 0800 673 468. They will call you back to conduct a telephone interview.

It can be well worth the effort to get on the MSD Housing Register, because if you are approved, you will pay just 25% of your income on rent, when you secure a home with either NTHT or Kāinga Ora.

If you do not qualify for the Register, but you still qualify for one of our homes, you will pay 70-80% of the market rent for that type of property.

Our application process

When we receive your fully completed application, you will be placed on our waiting list. We will send a letter or email acknowledging that we have received your application and explain what the next steps will be. We will schedule face-to-face interviews with applicants only once we know we have an upcoming vacancy. The interview is an important second step, so we can understand your situation and circumstances.

Please be patient - NTHT usually has just a few (4-5) vacancies each year, so we are not able to guarantee you a housing placement at any given time.

Pre-Housing Application / Assessment

Please answer all the questions in this form. The information you provide will be used only to apply for NTH housing. Your privacy is protected under the Privacy Act 2020.
